Appleby Sponsors Leadership Cayman 2012

Appleby, after carefully reviewing and selecting various community partnership opportunities in the Cayman Islands, decided last year to sign on as a seminar sponsor of Leadership Cayman 2012.

The Cayman Islands Chamber of Commerce is very pleased and extends thanks to Appleby for their generous contribution to the Leadership Cayman (LC) programme.

“On behalf of Leadership Cayman, we are delighted to welcome Appleby as one of the seminar sponsors of the 2012 programme. They are another example of a local firm recognizing the benefit and values this prestigious programme brings to the community” comments Mr. Simon Garnett, Leadership Cayman 2012 Chair. He also acknowledges the firm’s support in the form of guest speakers provided during the 2011 programme . Mr. Garnett is a graduate of the inaugural class in 2010, was chair elect in 2011 and current chair for the 2012 period.

Since its inception, 22 participants graduated from the inaugural class in 2010 and 18 graduated in June 2011. Each graduate was awarded a certificate and plaque which demonstrated the significant milestone they attained. There is a full class of 25 participants in 2012.

The unique offering of the LC programme is the calibre of speakers and decision-makers that each LC participant has the opportunity to interact with. Participants benefit from diverse interactions through a series of seminars and retreats ranging from business, government, education, media, social services, criminal justice, and the arts.
